

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

Dear Colleague,

As this fiscal year comes to a close, and we look to fund the government, we must use our spending power to ensure that we do not enable the Biden Administration's reckless progressive agenda.

We must not accept anything short of a "clean" Continuing Resolution ("CR") that contains no additional spending or extraneous policy riders. At a minimum, any agreement on a clean CR must carry over into the beginning of the 118th Congress.

Failure to stand strong against lame-duck spending and caving to the Democrats will likely worsen inflation, prolong the current economic recession, and advance policies contained in the Biden administration's progressive wish-list. The American people cannot afford another Washington feeding frenzy. We must not let them down.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Lee
